JOE ROBBIE STADIUM

The critics said it never could be done. But reality shows that the dream has come true.

The Miami Dolphins enter their second season of play in the new 74,930-seat Joe Robbie Stadium in 1988. Build at a cost of $115 million, the state-of-the-art, open-air facility was the first of its kind to be constructed entirely with private funds.

After a highly successful opening year, much more is in store in the future. The National Football League's premier game, Super Bowl XXIII, comes to JRS on Jan. 22, 1989. The event will mark the Super Bowl's return to South Florida after a 10-year absence, and it's obvious the main reason for the return is JRS itself.

Built with world-class soccer in mind, JRS undoubtedly will be one of the primary sites chosen in the next year or two to play host to matches when the 1994 World Cup comes to the United States. "I have been to 98 countries and seen many stadiums, but this is the best," said Colombian Soccer Federation President Leon Londono, a member of the FIFA committee which will designate sites, after touring the facility last spring. "I have told (FIFA president) Dr. Joao Havelange about this stadium."

In its first 12 months of operation, Joe Robbie Stadium displayed its versatility by playing host to a wide variety of events other than Dolphin games. The Marlboro Soccer Cup of Miami and a concert featuring Rod Stewart, Hall and Oates and Chicago were just two events that the people of South Florida could attend at JRS.

Major league baseball also came to the stadium in the form of two exhibition contests on March 11-12. The first night, the L.A. Dodgers defeated the Baltimore Orioles, 10-8, in front of 24,247, the largest crowd ever to see a major-league game in the state of Florida. In the second game, the Montreal Expos beat the Orioles by a 9-3 score with 17,830 in attendance.

Both baseball games were played with a temporary 30-foot wall as the left field fence to compensate for a distance of 272 feet down the foul line. But should South Florida ever acquire a major-league team, the permanent seats on the stadium's north side would be replaced by retractable seating at a cost of several million dollars. The conversion, which can be accomplished in a matter of months, would give JRS an estimated capacity of 50,000, as well as a left field line measuring about 345 feet.

Dodgers manager Tommy Lasorda had nothing but good things to say about Joe Robbie Stadium's capability to serve as a baseball facility after watching his team play there in March. "You get those left field seats moved back and you're going to have a very beautiful place to play baseball," Lasorda said. "It's got the potential to be a heckuva baseball stadium. Joe Robbie did a great job on this place. If you can't enjoy this, you can't enjoy anything."

The stadium's namesake, Dolphins owner Joe Robbie, even states that his stadium will be the home to baseball on a full-time basis within the next several years. "I predict we will have a major-league team playing in this stadium as early as 1991 or 1992," says Robbie. "The two exhibition games played here last March will be marked as the time that really began the drive for major-league baseball in Miami. We're going to get it the first way we can, whether we purchase an expansion team or someone moves a team here."

Located one mile south of the Dade-Broward county line, Joe Robbie Stadium sits on a 160-acre site. It is 16 miles northwest of downtown Miami and 14 miles north of the Orange Bowl, the Dolphins' former home.

The first football game in Joe Robbie Stadium featured Miami against Chicago in a preseason battle won by the Bears, 10-3, on Aug. 16, 1987 (the 22nd anniversary of the Dolphin franchise). Plans for the stadium first were announced on March 5, 1984. Clearing of the stadium site began on July 22, 1985, and groundbreaking ceremonies were held on Dec. 1, 1985 – just 20½ months prior to the first game.

Financing for the stadium is based largely upon the leasing of executive suites and club seats on 10-year leases. Executive suites, which seat 10, 12 or 16 people per box, range in price from $29,000-$65,000 per year. Each executive suite is fully furnished, including air-conditioning, carpeting, refrigerator, icemaker, lockable liquor cabinet, lounge furniture, two TV monitors and optional telephone hookup and catered food and beverage service. A suiteholder also receives two free parking spaces as well as four guest passes.

Club seats, which are priced from $600-$1,400 per year on a 10-year lease, are 21" wide (two inches wider than other seats in the stadium) with chairback and armrest. Club seats, whose patrons are kept cool by overhead vents which blow cold air down on them, are the only grandstand-style seating in the stadium underneath the overhang of the upper deck. Club seat holders also are guaranteed a parking space.

Only executive suite and club seat lessees have access to the air-conditioned stadium club, located behind the suites. The stadium club, which features a better food and beverage service than that found at concession stands, runs around the entire stadium. Holders of executive suites and club seats, who have the option to renew their lease over the life of the stadium, also have the right of first refusal on their seats for all other events in the stadium except the Super Bowl.

General seating in Joe Robbie Stadium is a 19" chairback seat with armrest, which compares favorably with the 17" bench seat of the Orange Bowl. Each seat offers an excellent view of the playing field as there are no obstructed seats in the stadium.

The stadium is easily accessible by the fan. Eight 25' wide ramps (two per corner) lead up to the upper deck. Also located on each corner are two escalators, one rising to the upper deck, the other to the club level. Executive suite holders also may access their seats by any one of four designated elevators.

There are a total of 14,970 parking spaces for cars and 254 for buses in the 140-acre on-site lot. There also is a helipad.

Comfort and convenience for the fan is the byword at Joe Robbie Stadium. In the general seating areas (100, 400 levels), there are 40 concession stands (each with a TV monitor so as not to miss a minute of the action). Throughout the stadium, there are a total of 80 restrooms (40 men, 40 women). For added enjoyment of the game, two giant scoreboards each equipped with a color Sony JumboTRON video screen are located on the ends of the stadium.

The playing field is Prescription Athletic Turf (natural grass). Its drainage capacity is such that there would be a firm playing surface within 30 minutes of a 1" per hour rain.

Field lighting is 150-plus foot candles. The field lights also have the added feature of instant restrike capability. This means that the lights will go right back on after a power failure because they do not need a 20-30 minute warmup period as with some stadium lights.

Originally named Dolphin Stadium, the facility was renamed by the Robbie children on April 30, 1987, for the man who had been the driving force behind its construction. "We have seen our father lay everything he owns and everything he has accomplished on the line to build the stadium, putting himself in a real bind," said Tim Robbie, designated spokesman for the family. "If he had flunked the marketing test or the private financing test, the project would have been Joe Robbie's folly. So why not 'Joe Robbie Stadium?' Stadiums have been named in other places after people who have done a lot less to deserve it."

Indeed they have.

1987 GAME-BY-GAME SUMMARIES

GAME 1

NEW ENGLAND 28, DOLPHINS 21 — Sullivan Stadium
September 13, 1987 — Foxboro, MA

The Dolphins opened their 1987 regular season on a down note, losing 28-21 at New England in a driving rainstorm. Behind Dan Marino's three TD passes, the Dolphins took a 21-7 advantage midway through the second quarter. But New England came back with a TD late in the first half and then outscored the Dolphins 14-0 in the second half. The Dolphins, who were plagued by injuries (Dan Marino, Dwight Stephenson, John Offerdahl, Hugh Green) in the pre-season, saw punter Reggie Roby, right tackle Ronnie Lee and Marino go down versus the Pats. Roby was injured on his first play when, after fumbling a low snap from center, he was tackled by Rod McSwain. Roby suffered a severe ankle sprain and a mild groin pull. Lee also suffered a pulled groin. Marino was knocked out of the game late in the contest when he was kicked in the eye after a pass attempt and suffered blurred vision and a swollen right eye. Don Strock was pressed into duty as the backup for both Roby and Marino. Strock, who had never punted in the regular season, had seven kicks for 235 yards (33.6 average). Only one of his punts was returned and that was fumbled with Miami recovering. Strock had three punts which died inside the 20-yard line (including two on the two-yard line). Miami had a chance to tie the contest on the game's final drive after a march which began from its own 12-yard line with 3:46 to play. Marino hit four straight completions but was shaken up on the last and was replaced by Strock. Strock then connected on five consecutive passes to get Miami to the Patriots three-yard line with :05 remaining. A delay-of-game penalty subsequently pushed Miami back to the eight. On the game's final play, Strock's pass into the left corner of the end zone, intended for Fred Banks, fell incomplete.

GAME 2

DOLPHINS 23, INDIANAPOLIS 10 — Hoosier Dome
September 20, 1987 — Indianapolis, IN

The Dolphins recorded their first win of 1987 in Indianapolis with a 23-10 triumph over the Colts. It marked the third straight season that Miami picked up its first win in the season's second week versus Indianapolis. It also marked the 14th straight win for the Dolphins over the Colts – at the time the longest current string in the NFL. After an Indianapolis punt, the Dolphins scored on their first drive when Dan Marino passed 18 yards to rookie RB Troy Stradford. It marked Stradford's first NFL TD. It also gave Marino a string of 25 straight regular-season games with at least one TD pass, tying him with Daryle Lamonica for the third-longest streak in NFL history. Marino later added two more TD tosses – six yards to Jim Jensen (who received the team's offensive game ball) and 10 yards to Indianapolis native Mark Clayton. Fuad Reveiz booted his first field goal of 1987 to complete Miami's scoring. The Dolphin defense played well, allowing only a 50-yard field goal by Dean Biasucci and a 17-yard TD pass from Gary Hogeboom to Matt Bouza. Lineman Brian Sochia (defensive game ball) recorded two QB sacks for the Dolphins, while LB Mark Brown led the team in tackles with nine. Glenn Blackwood picked up his second INT of the season for Miami.

SEATTLE 24, DOLPHINS 20 — Kingdome
October 4, 1987 — Seattle, WA

"We just ran out of time," offered Dolphins coach Don Shula in describing the 24-20 replacement loss to the Seahawks in a noisy Kingdome in Seattle. John Tagliaferri's two-yard run with 3:11 to play lifted the Dolphins to a 20-17 margin. But Seattle came back to take a 24-20 edge when Rick Parros ran it in from a yard out. A clipping penalty on the ensuing kickoff resulted in Miami having to start on its own 11-yard line with 1:25 remaining and no timeouts. Miami quarterback Kyle Mackey hit four straight completions as the Dolphins moved the ball to the Seattle 39 before time expired. Mackey played well for Miami, completing 17 of 26 (65.4%) for 179 yards and one TD. He was not intercepted. Miami had a balanced offensive attack, gaining 160 net yards passing and 164 net yards rushing. The Dolphins' defense allowed only 76 yards on the ground, but saw Seattle QB Bruce Mathison pass for 326 yards on 20 of 42 with two TDs and three INTs. Ronald Scott and Clarence Bailey equaled what were single-game team highs for '87 at the time with 55 yards rushing apiece. Tagliaferri was one of three receivers to catch four passes. He also gained 28 yards on nine carries. Defensively, Miami recorded three interceptions for the first time since Dec. 22, 1985 (versus Buffalo). Ironically, the opposing quarterback who was the victim of those interceptions in both games was Bruce Mathison. Tate Randle had two interceptions for Miami – the first time a Dolphin player had made two in a game since Glenn Blackwood picked off two passes versus New England on Dec. 16, 1985.

DOLPHINS 42, KANSAS CITY 0 — Joe Robbie Stadium
October 11, 1987 — Miami, FL

The Dolphins picked up their first shutout since Dec. 22, 1985 (28-0 over Buffalo) with a 42-0 victory over the Kansas City Chiefs in the first regular-season game ever played in the new Joe Robbie Stadium. It was the fourth-largest margin of victory in Dolphin history (also accomplished on two other occasions). Miami's defense held the Chiefs to 132 yards total offense – the fourth-fewest total in Miami opponent history and the least since Sept. 2, 1979, when Buffalo gained only 121 yards. Ronald Scott became the first Dolphin to score three rushing TDs in a game (tying a team record) since Larry Csonka did it vs. New England in 1979. He had a season-high 99 yards on the ground on 18 carries. FS Liffort Hobley had a banner day defensively with two interceptions, a fumble recovery returned for a touchdown (55 yards), two passes defensed and four tackles. For his efforts, Hobley was named AFC defensive player of the week by the NFL. CB Trell Hooper added another defensive score with a 59-yard fumble recovery returned for a TD. Miami jumped out to a 7-0 lead in the first quarter when Rickey Isom scored the first TD in Joe Robbie Stadium history (and his first NFL TD) on a six-yard run. Scott then added a two-yard run in the second quarter and Miami led 14-0 at halftime. Scott added another score early in the third quarter before Hobley and Hooper had their returns to give Miami a comfortable 35-0 advantage entering the final period. Miami's defense held Kansas City to only eight first downs and 132 total yards (90 rushing, 42 passing).

GAME 5

N.Y. JETS 37, DOLPHINS 31 (OT) — Giants Stadium
October 18, 1987 — East Rutherford, NJ

For the second straight season, the Dolphins traveled to the Meadowlands to face the Jets only to return home with an overtime loss. Miami dropped a 37-31 game in OT as Jets QB Pat Ryan passed eight yards to Eddie Hunter with 34 seconds left in the extra period. In 1986, the Dolphins suffered a 51-45 overtime loss in New York. Miami took a 10-0 edge after one quarter as Willie Beecher booted a 19-yard field goal and QB Kyle Mackey passed five yards to TE Willie Smith. But the Jets stormed back with 17 second-quarter points to lead 17-10 at intermission. Miami tied the score at 17-17 after three periods when Mackey ran it in from a yard out. The Jets then went up by 14 points with only six minutes to play. Mackey led a Dolphin comeback, picking up another rushing TD (of five yards) and then passing one yard to TE David Lewis with 1:01 left to tie the game and force an overtime. Both teams came close early in overtime but were stopped short by turnovers before Ryan's pass to Hunter gave New York the win. Ryan was 30 of 49 for 301 yards, four TDs and two INTs. Mackey was 26 of 55 for 298 yards and two TDs but threw a team-record five interceptions.

GAME 6

BUFFALO 34, DOLPHINS 31 (OT) — Joe Robbie Stadium
October 25, 1987 — Miami, FL

The Dolphins saw Buffalo battle back from a 21-0 deficit to record a 34-31 overtime win at Joe Robbie Stadium. The loss marked Miami's first defeat in JRS and second straight OT loss (the Dolphins lost 37-31 in OT to the Jets the week before). The 21-point comeback by the Bills was the best ever by an opponent against a Dolphin team. The previous best was when Baltimore battled back from an 18-point deficit (28-10) on Oct. 9, 1977, to win 45-28. It was Buffalo's first win over Miami since Oct. 9, 1983, when the Bills put together a 38-35 overtime triumph in the Orange Bowl. That game was Dan Marino's first NFL start. Marino, who had thrown 10 TD passes in three games in '87 and had four against the Bills, got the Dolphins on the board first with a five-yard scoring strike to Mark Duper on the game's first drive. Marino then connected with James Pruitt for a 25-yard TD pass – the 150th regular-season TD toss in Marino's career. A two-yard scoring pass to Bruce Hardy midway through the second quarter powered Miami to a 21-0 advantage. But the Bills battled back with a field goal late in the first half, a rushing TD and a 14-yard TD pass from Jim Kelly to Chris Burkett to pull within 21-17 entering the fourth quarter. Two Miami turnovers (a fumbled punt and fumbled kickoff) led to Buffalo TDs, and the Bills led 31-24 with 4:04 to play. But Marino brought the Dolphins back, completing an 11-play, 80-yard march with a 12-yard TD pass to Mark Clayton with 1:03 left. Buffalo could not move the ball on its next possession, necessitating the overtime. The Bills won the coin toss in OT and moved to the Miami 10-yard line, where Scott Norwood booted a 27-yard field goal for the win after 4:08 of overtime play.

GAME 7

DOLPHINS 35, PITTSBURGH 24 — Joe Robbie Stadium
November 1, 1987 — Miami, FL

Don Shula recorded his 250th regular-season coaching victory, Dan Marino set numerous records, Troy Stradford became only the fifth Dolphin rookie ever to rush for over 100 yards in a game and the Miami defense held the AFC's leading ground gainer to 32 yards in a 35-24 Dolphin comeback win over Pittsburgh at Joe Robbie Stadium. On his third try, Shula, the NFL's winningest active coach, picked up regular-season career win No. 250 and was presented with a game ball by the Dolphin players after the contest. Marino put on an awesome aerial display, completing 25 of 31 (for a personal best percentage of 80.6) for 332 yards and four TDs with two INTs. Stradford rushed for 110 yards on 19 carries (5.8 average) and added his first NFL rushing TD. Meanwhile, the Miami defense held Pittsburgh's Earnest Jackson, the AFC's top rusher going into the game, to 32 yards on 12 carries (2.7 average) and no TDs. The Steelers, who remained winless against the Dolphins in Miami (0-6), got off to a 14-0 advantage early when QB Mark Malone passed 10 yards to Charles Lockett following a Miami turnover and Donnie Shell returned an interception 50 yards for a score. Marino got Miami on the board with a two-yard TD toss to Bruce Hardy, but Frank Pollard bulled in from a yard out to give the visitors a 21-7 lead at halftime. Miami struck first in the second half when Marino hooked up with Mark Clayton on a 41-yard scoring play. Marino then completed a 50-yard scoring strike to Mark Duper late in the third quarter and put Miami on top with a 33-yard TD pass to Clayton early in the fourth period. Stradford added a five-yard TD run later in the final quarter. The last time the Dolphins were behind at halftime and came back to win in Miami ironically was against the Steelers on Oct. 6, 1985. The game featured the return of Dolphin All-Pro linebacker John Offerdahl, who saw his first game action since Aug. 16 when he suffered a torn bicep versus the Chicago Bears. Offerdahl started at RILB and was Miami's top tackler with nine stops. Punter Reggie Roby saw his first action of '87 and had to punt only once. Roby had been injured in the season's first game at New England.

GAME 8

DOLPHINS 20, CINCINNATI 14 — Riverfront Stadium
November 8, 1987 — Cincinnati, OH

The Dolphins' defense rose to the occasion by holding the AFC's leading rushing team to 156 yards, one of the league's top offenses to only 14 points and surviving a last-play "Hail Mary" attempt in the end zone to come away with a 20-14 triumph at Cincinnati. After the Bengals took the opening kickoff and marched 75 yards in eight plays to score (17-yard TD pass by Boomer Esiason to Eric Kattus), the Dolphin 'D' settled down, shutting out Cincinnati for two quarters before allowing a rushing TD early in the fourth period. The Dolphins got on the board in the second quarter on a one-yard TD dive by rookie Troy Stradford (which capped a 15-play, 94-yard drive). Miami took a 10-7 edge on the first half's last play when Fuad Reveiz booted a 48-yard field goal. Miami bumped its lead up to 17-7 late in the third quarter when Dan Marino passed 30 yards to Mark Clayton to complete a 10-play, 80-yard march. Reveiz later added a 34-yard field goal in the fourth quarter. On the game's last play, Cincinnati, at Miami's 43-yard line, tried a desperation "Hail Mary" pass into the end zone which was batted down. Marino was 26 of 41 for 262 yards and one TD with no INTs. Stradford was the game's top receiver with seven catches for 49 yards, followed by James Pruitt with a career-high six receptions for 90 yards. Mark Duper suffered cracked ribs early in the game and did not return.

GAME 9

INDIANAPOLIS 40, DOLPHINS 21 — Joe Robbie Stadium
November 15, 1987 — Miami, FL

A couple of streaks came to an end as the Dolphins suffered a 40-21 setback to the AFC East-leading Indianapolis Colts at Joe Robbie Stadium. The loss snapped a two-game winning streak for Miami and ended its string of 14 consecutive wins over the Colts. The last Colts win was a 30-17 triumph at the Orange Bowl on Oct. 5, 1980. It was the Colts' first win over Miami since they moved to Indianapolis from Baltimore in 1984. The 19-point margin was notable as Miami's previous four losses in '87 had come by a combined total of 20 points. Colts RB Eric Dickerson became the first opposing rusher in '87 to gain over 100 yards on the ground against the Dolphins as he rolled up 154 yards on 30 carries (5.1 average) and added his first rushing TD as a Colt. Miami QB Dan Marino was held below the 50 percent completion mark for only the fifth time in his career as hit on 14 of 34 (41.2%) for 194 yards, two TDs and one interception (only his 5th of the season). With his first TD toss versus the Colts, Marino moved into sole possession of second place on the all-time NFL list of consecutive games with at least one TD pass. Through this game, Marino had passed for a TD in 29 straight games – just ahead of Dave Krieg (28) but behind record-holder Johnny Unitas (47). The game was filled with penalties – 21 total flags (8 on Miami, 13 on the Colts). The 21 by both teams was the fourth-most in Dolphins history. Indianapolis rolled up 32 first downs – the third-most ever against Miami in a single game. Miami jumped out to an early 14-0 first-quarter lead on a six-yard TD run by RB Lorenzo Hampton and a four-yard TD pass from Marino to TE Dan Johnson. The Colts pulled to within seven at the end of the quarter on a four-yard TD run by Dickerson. After Indianapolis went up 17-14 late in the first half, Marino brought the Dolphins back with a 10-yard scoring strike to Fred Banks for a 21-17 lead. Colts kicker Dean Biasucci booted one of his four field goals on the day and Indianapolis was within one at the half, 21-20. The Dolphins took the second half kickoff and drove to the Colts one-yard line, where they had a first down. But Hampton fumbled on a dive play and the Colts marched 90 yards before Biasucci booted another field goal for a 23-21 Indianapolis advantage.

GAME 10

DOLPHINS 20, DALLAS 14 — Texas Stadium
November 22, 1987 — Irving, TX

Rookie Troy Stradford rushed for 169 yards (third-highest single-game total in Dolphins history) and had 252 total offensive yards (tied for third-highest in team history) to lead Miami to a 20-14 win over Dallas in Texas Stadium. Stradford, who picked up his second 100-yard rushing game of the season, took over the team lead in rushing – he already was the leading receiver – never to relinquish either. Against Dallas Stradford carried the ball 17 times and had an impressive 9.9 yards per-carry average. He also had Miami's first score – a 19-yard TD run. He was Miami's top receiver versus the Cowboys with six receptions for 83 yards. It also was Stradford's 37-yard run on a third-and-four situation with 1:23 to play that cemented the win for Miami. Dan Marino threw a TD pass in his 30th consecutive game. Ten different receivers caught passes against Dallas. Bud Brown and William Judson each recorded interceptions for the Dolphin 'D.' CB Paul Lankford added a fumble recovery. Miami's defense held Cowboys RB Herschel Walker to 82 yards on 19 carries. Of Dallas' 12 pass receptions, 11 went to running backs, one to a tight end and none to the wide receivers. Dallas QB Steve Pelluer was the Cowboys' top rusher with 84 yards on 10 carries. Dolphins punter Reggie Roby enjoyed a fine evening with a 46.7-yard average on four kicks. Both teams scored on their initial possessions – Dallas first on an 8-yard pass from Pelluer to Timmy Newsome and Miami on Stradford's 19-yard run. Fuad Reveiz booted a 26-yard field goal in the second quarter to give Miami a 10-7 halftime edge.

GAME 11

BUFFALO 27, DOLPHINS 0 — Rich Stadium
November 29, 1987 — Orchard Park, NY

The Dolphins traveled to Buffalo and suffered a very disappointing 27-0 setback at the hands of the Bills. It was the first shutout for Miami since the infamous snowplow game at New England (3-0) on Dec. 12, 1982. The game also saw the end of Dan Marino's streak of 30 consecutive games with at least one TD pass. Marino's string is second all-time to Johnny Unitas with 47. The Dolphins were held to 23 yards rushing (all by Troy Stradford) – tying the team record for lowest single-game rushing total. Stradford, who had over 100 yards the week before against Dallas, carried the ball 15 times but was bothered by the slippery field conditions. Dan Marino had Miami's only other rushing attempt for no yardage. Marino suffered only the sixth sub-50 percent completion percentage game in his career (13 of 28 for 165 yards, 3 INTs). Miami had a season-low total of 13 first downs and was only 3 of 13 (23 percent) in third-down efficiency. The Dolphins had 11 drives in the game, resulting in five punts, three turnovers and three turnovers on downs. Punter Reggie Roby was the lone bright spot for Miami, punting five times for 241 yards and a 48.2-yard average. Roby also had a 77-yarder – the longest punt in Miami history. He booted three inside the 20-yard line, including a 22-yard punt which went out at the 15. After a scoreless first quarter, Buffalo capped an eight-play, 85-yard march with Jamie Mueller running it in from five yards out. Six minutes later, Bills QB Jim Kelly passed nine yards to TE Butch Rolle for a 14-0 advantage. And just before the half, Kelly ended a brilliant seven-play, 97-yard drive with a 22-yard scoring toss to WR Chris Burkett. Scott Norwood, who had beaten the Dolphins earlier in the year in overtime at Joe Robbie Stadium, booted a field goal in both the third and fourth quarters to close out the afternoon's scoring. The win by Buffalo marked the first time since 1966 (Miami's first season) that the Bills had swept a season series from the Dolphins.

GAME 12

DOLPHINS 37, N.Y. JETS 28 — Joe Robbie Stadium
December 7, 1987 — Miami, FL

Rookie Troy Stradford rushed for over 100 yards for the third time in 1987, Dan Marino passed for 293 yards, ran for a score and passed for another and the Dolphins defense held the Jets to 40 yards rushing (eight on a fake field goal rush) in Miami's 37-28 victory over the Jets before a sold-out crowd at Joe Robbie Stadium. Stradford rushed 30 times (second-highest single-game, regular-season total in team history; behind only Mercury Morris with 31 attempts in '75 versus Green Bay) for 120 yards and scored three TDs on the ground. The three scores tied a Miami record, done on nine previous occasions in the regular season. He became the first Miami back since Andra Franklin in '82 to rush for over 100 yards three times in a single season. Marino passed for a season-high 29 completions on 40 attempts for 293 yards and one TD. He added a five-yard scoring run in the fourth quarter on a naked bootleg. RB Ron Davenport tied the Miami record for receptions in a game (done four other times in the regular season) with 10 for 72 yards. Defensively, Paul Lankford had a 44-yard interception return (the longest of his career) which set up one of Stradford's TDs and rookie John Bosa (like Stradford, out of Boston College) recorded his first two NFL sacks. The Dolphins defense held the Jets to 40 yards rushing, including only 3 yards on the ground in the first half. New York, which had but 2 first downs at halftime, finished with 13. Miami had an incredible 43:39 possession time total – the highest in the league in 1987. The Dolphins had five impressive scoring marches of 70-plus yards. Miami also maintained its perfect record (4-0) against the Jets in Monday night home games.

GAME 13

DOLPHINS 28, PHILADELPHIA 10 — Veterans Stadium
December 13, 1987 — Philadelphia, PA

The Dolphins won their second game in a row and moved into a three-way tie for first place with a 28-10 win over the Eagles in Philadelphia. While Dan Marino (25 of 39, 376 yards, 3 TDs, 1 INT) paced the Dolphins offense, the Miami defense limited the Eagles to 15 first downs, 155 yards rushing and 155 yards passing. It marked the first time in the six-game series between the two clubs that the visiting team won. Fullback Ron Davenport was Miami's top rusher with 49 yards on 10 carries. Both totals were season-highs for Davenport. He also added a one-yard TD run – his first rushing score since 1985. Mark Clayton caught seven passes (two for scores) and went over 100 yards in receiving for the first time in '87. For the second straight week, Marino completed passes to nine different receivers. He had his 30th three-TD game. In addition, Marino went over 300 yards for the 25th time in his career, tying him with Sonny Jurgensen for third on the NFL's all-time list of 300-yard games. LB John Offerdahl paced the defense with 11 tackles (10 solo) and a QB sack. After a scoreless first quarter, Philadelphia scored first when Mike Quick caught a 44-yard TD pass from Randall Cunningham. But the Dolphins came right back with a three-play, 80-yard march, capped by Marino's 20-yard TD pass to Mark Duper. After the Eagles went up by three on a Paul McFadden field goal, Miami took the lead for good on Davenport's one-yard run just before halftime. Miami closed the scoring with two TDs in the third quarter – both passes from Marino to Clayton – one for 11 yards, the other for 20 yards.

GAME 14

DOLPHINS 23, WASHINGTON 21 — Joe Robbie Stadium
December 20, 1987 — Miami, FL

With their backs against the wall for the third straight week, the Dolphins responded with their third consecutive win, defeating the Redskins in a 23-21 thriller before 65,715 at Joe Robbie Stadium. Dan Marino was brilliant, passing for over 300 yards and three TDs – including the game-winner with just over a minute to play. Marino moved into a second-place tie with Johnny Unitas on the NFL's career 300-yard game list; each has 26 in regular-season play. Mark Duper enjoyed his best game of the season, catching six passes for 170 yards and a career-high three TDs. It was Duper's six-yard scoring reception with 1:07 remaining that capped a 13-play, 80-yard march to Miami's winning touchdown. Miami's offensive line, playing without All-Pro center Dwight Stephenson and starting RT Ronnie Lee, did not allow a QB sack – breaking a Redskin streak of 63 consecutive games with at least one sack. The Dolphins scored first in the game when Fuad Reveiz booted a 48-yard field goal in the second quarter. Kelvin Bryant came back with a six-yard TD run for Washington, but Marino and Duper hooked up for a 26-yard scoring play to give Miami a 9-7 (PAT failed) halftime edge. Washington QB Jay Schroeder got the first score of the second half on a three-yard bootleg for a 14-9 Redskins lead. Early in the fourth quarter, Marino found Duper from 59 yards out to cap an 80-yard drive and the Dolphins led 16-14. The Redskins went on top again seven minutes later when George Rogers rumbled in from the two-yard line. But the Dolphins started from their 20-yard line with 6:17 to play and moved 80 yards in 5:10.

GAME 15

NEW ENGLAND 24, DOLPHINS 10 — Joe Robbie Stadium
December 28, 1987 — Miami, FL

Playing the final game of the 1987 regular season and the last game of the first year in Joe Robbie Stadium, the Patriots defeated the Dolphins 24-10 before 61,192 in a Monday night game. The two teams finished with indentical 8-7 records. The win completed a season sweep of the Dolphins for New England and gave the Pats five consecutive wins over Miami. The Dolphins started the game on a down note when on their first play from scrimmage, rookie RB Troy Stradford fumbled with the Patriots recovering on the 28-yard line. Six plays later, New England QB Steve Grogan fired a three-yard pass to WR Irving Fryar for the score. Miami got on the board with a 47-yard field goal by Fuad Reveiz but Grogan got hot again, this time hitting WR Stephen Starring for a 34-yard score, and the Pats led 14-3 after one quarter. New England added its final 10 points in the second quarter on a five-yard TD run by RB Tony Collins and a 31-yard field goal by Tony Franklin. Miami's only touchdown of the evening came in the fourth period on a nine-yard pass from QB Dan Marino to WR James Pruitt. Dolphins punter Reggie Roby had a good night, punting three times for a 41.7-yard average. He also had two punts inside the 20-yard line.

PLAYOFF HISTORY

1970 AFC PLAYOFF

OAKLAND 21, MIAMI 14 — Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum
December 27, 1970 — Oakland, CA

Oakland quarterback Daryle Lamonica unloaded an 82-yard touchdown pass to Rod Sherman with 9:34 left to play as Oakland spoiled the Dolphins' first appearance in the playoffs, 21-14, on a field oozing with mud. The Dolphins, who had won six consecutive games to finish the season 10-4 and gain a wild-card berth, took a 7-0 lead in the second quarter when Bob Griese fired a 16-yard strike to Paul Warfield in the end zone. Lamonica matched that TD with a 22-yard toss to Fred Biletnikoff only 1:50 before halftime. Raider right cornerback Willie Brown intercepted a wet and wobbly pass by Griese and fled 50 yards along the sideline for the tie-breaking TD. It came minutes after Jake Scott recovered an Oakland fumble at the Miami 10-yard line. The heave to Sherman was insurance. Only three plays earlier, Dolphin kicker Garo Yepremian missed a 24-yard field goal attempt for the second time in the game. Oakland's George Blanda also missed a 23-yarder.

MIAMI 27, KANSAS CITY 24 (2 OTs) — Kansas City Municipal Stadium
December 25, 1971 — Kansas City, MO

Garo Yepremian ended 82 minutes and 40 seconds of an epic struggle by booting a 37-yard field goal with 7:40 elapsed in the second overtime, lifting the Dolphins past Kansas City, 27-24, on Christmas Day. The Dolphins battled from behind three times to tie the AFC West champions, the third time on Bob Griese's five-yard pass to tight end Marv Fleming with 96 seconds remaining in regulation. Kansas City running back Ed Podolak, who amassed 350 yards of all-purpose running, returned the ensuing kickoff 78 yards to the Dolphin 22 where Curtis Johnson missed a desperation tackle. With 35 seconds on the clock, Jan Stenerud missed a 32-yard field-goal try. Stenerud had a 42-yarder blocked by Nick Buoniconti in the fifth quarter, and Yepremian was short with a 45-yard effort. But Larry Csonka crashed 29 yards to the Chiefs 36, and that put Yepremian, the NFL's scoring leader, in position to win it. Goal posts were on the goal line; in 1974 the uprights were moved to the end line.

1971 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

MIAMI 21, BALTIMORE 0 — Orange Bowl
January 2, 1972 — Miami, FL

Three lightning plays and a persistent defense propelled the Dolphins into Super Bowl VI with a 21-0 rout of Baltimore before an all-time Orange Bowl record crowd of 78,939. Strong safety Dick Anderson intercepted a Johnny Unitas pass which was deflected by Curtis Johnson, and behind a wall of six open-field blocks Anderson weaved 62 yards for a third-quarter touchdown. "My eyes were popping as I ran," Anderson said. "I've never seen so many people land on their heads." Before Anderson's convoy made it 14-0, the Dolphins staggered the defending Super Bowl champions when Bob Griese and Paul Warfield hooked up for a 75-yard TD pass. Warfield applied the clincher when he escaped 50 yards with a Griese pass, setting up a five-yard TD slam by fullback Larry Csonka. The Colts had not been held scoreless for 97 games over seven seasons. They were stopped at the Dolphin 9 in the second quarter. Jim O'Brien missed two field-goal attempts and had another blocked by Lloyd Mumphord.

SUPER BOWL VI

DALLAS 24, MIAMI 3 — Tulane Stadium
January 16, 1972 — New Orleans, LA

A 252-yard rushing attack and sharp passing by Roger Staubach spurred the Dallas Cowboys to a 24-3 victory over the Dolphins at Tulane Stadium. Duane Thomas pranced 95 yards on 19 carries, fullback Walt Garrison added 74 yards on 14 carries and Staubach passed twice for touchdowns to Lance Alworth and Mike Ditka. Staubach, who was sacked twice in the first quarter, bounced back to complete 12 of 19 passes, and he scrambled from the Dolphin pass rush five times. The Dolphins were frustrated all day; in the first quarter, Larry Csonka lost a fumble and Bob Griese was chased by tackle Bob Lilly for a 29-yard loss. Griese also fumbled away a snap at the Dallas 16 in the fourth period. Although it was an intriguing 10-3 at halftime, the Cowboys marched 71 yards in eight plays after the kickoff, and Thomas swept three yards for the TD.

1972 AFC PLAYOFF

MIAMI 20, CLEVELAND 14 — Orange Bowl
December 24, 1972 — Miami, FL

On the ropes in the fourth quarter after an unprecedented 14 victories, the Dolphins responded to poised Earl Morrall and drove 80 yards for a touchdown with 4:56 to play for a 20-14 victory over the Cleveland Browns. Morrall, the NFL's leading passer after replacing the injured Bob Griese 10 weeks earlier, had completed only four passes for 38 yards. But he threw 15 and 35 yards to Paul Warfield, reaching the Browns 20, and a pass interference call against linebacker Billy Andrews put the ball at the eight. Halfback Jim Kiick then bulled eight yards up the middle on a trap for the winning points. The triumph was sealed with a minute to play when Dolphin linebacker Doug Swift intercepted Cleveland QB Mike Phipps at the Dolphin 20. Despite stealing five of Phipps' passes, the Dolphins were stung by a 27-yard TD pass to Fair Hooker and trailed 14-13 with 8:11 to play.

1972 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

MIAMI 21, PITTSBURGH 17 — Three Rivers Stadium
December 31, 1972 — Pittsburgh, PA

Quarterback Bob Griese, playing 11 weeks after he had broken his right leg, ignited a third-quarter touchdown drive with a 52-yard pass to Paul Warfield, and the Dolphins overtook the Pittsburgh Steelers, 21-17, in unusually warm 63-degree weather. Griese was given the nod in the second half after Earl Morrall had flipped a nine-yard touchdown pass to Larry Csonka for a 7-7 halftime deadlock. Punter Larry Seiple broke loose on a daring 37-yard run on fourth down to set up that TD. Trailing 10-7, Griese directed TD drives of 80 and 49 yards with Jim Kiick blasting two and three yards for the scores. Steeler quarterback Terry Bradshaw, who closed the gap with four straight completions on a 71-yard TD drive, was intercepted by Nick Buoniconti at midfield with 2½ minutes to play. In addition to Seiple's dash, the Dolphins converted fourth-down situations on both Griese-led drives.

SUPER BOWL VII

MIAMI 14, WASHINGTON 7 — Memorial Coliseum
January 14, 1973 — Los Angeles, CA

"This is the ultimate," Coach Don Shula said quietly after his unbeaten Dolphins dominated the Washington Redskins, 14-7, to cap a perfect season. It was Shula's first Super Bowl triumph in three tries. A record Super Bowl crowd of 90,182 saw the Dolphins surge to a 14-0 halftime lead even as one touchdown was nullified by an offside penalty. Miami intercepted three of Bill Kilmer's passes, and Manny Fernandez scuttled the Redskin running game with 17 tackles. An original Dolphin, Howard Twilley, eluded cornerback Pat Fischer to snare a 28-yard touchdown pass from Bob Griese in the first quarter. Griese's 57-yard TD bomb to Paul Warfield was erased by the penalty, but a 32-yard interception return by linebacker Nick Buoniconti set up the Dolphins' second score. Safety Jake Scott thwarted Kilmer with an end zone interception and 55-yard runback. The Redskins finally scored on a bizarre 49-yard fumble recovery by Mike Bass after a blocked field goal and attempted pass by kicker Garo Yepremian. Scott was named MVP.

1973 AFC PLAYOFF

MIAMI 34, CINCINNATI 16 — Orange Bowl
December 23, 1973 — Miami, FL

A defense which had allowed only 15 touchdowns all season kept the Cincinnati Bengals out of the end zone while the Dolphins hammered 241 yards on the ground for a convincing 34-16 victory. Mercury Morris scooted 106 yards on 20 carries and Bob Griese completed 11 of 18 passes, including TDs of 13 yards to Paul Warfield and seven yards to Jim Mandich. Garo Yepremian converted long field goals of 50 and 46 yards in the second half to widen the winning margin. The Dolphins led 21-3 when a lapse just before halftime gave life to the Bengals. Safety Neal Craig intercepted Griese and returned it 45 yards for a score, and Horst Muhlman booted field goals of 46 and 12 yards – the second coming after Morris fumbled a kickoff – to make it 21-16.

1973 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

MIAMI 27, OAKLAND 10 — Orange Bowl
December 30, 1973 — Miami, FL

A relentless running attack with Larry Csonka and Mercury Morris accounting for 203 of the 266 yards powered the Dolphins to a 27-10 triumph over the Oakland Raiders for a third straight American Conference title. Csonka, a 237-pound battering ram who had his third consecutive 1,000-yard season, scored three touchdowns with his 117 yards on 29 carries. The Dolphins covered 64 and 63 yards exclusively on the ground for a 14-0 halftime lead. Then as the Raiders battled within 17-10, Bob Griese directed ground assaults of 63 yards, culminating in a field goal, and 40 yards, ending in Csonka's third TD. Defensively, safety Dick Anderson forced a fourth-down fumble by Marv Hubbard at midfield, and the Dolphins took possession with a 20-10 lead and six minutes to play. Oakland had stopped Miami's 18-game winning streak, 12-7, three months earlier.

SUPER BOWL VIII

MIAMI 24, MINNESOTA 7 — Rice Stadium
January 13, 1974 — Houston, TX

Winning for the 32nd time in 34 games, the Dolphins repeated as Super Bowl champions and proved themselves "Best Ever" with a 24-7 rout of the Minnesota Vikings at Rice Stadium. There was no doubt from the beginning. The Dolphins swept 62 yards in 10 plays with the opening kickoff, scoring on Larry Csonka's five-yard smash. Minnesota punted, and the onslaught resumed with a 56-yard, 10-play Dolphin drive capped by Jim Kiick's one-yard plunge. It was 17-0 before the Vikings crossed their 40, and a fourth-down fumble by Minnesota's Oscar Reed was recovered by safety Jake Scott at the Dolphin six-yard line. A brilliant, diving catch by Paul Warfield netted 27 yards on a third-quarter TD drive that hiked the score to 24-0. Csonka finished with his best-ever total of 145 yards on 33 carries. The Dolphins rushed for 703 yards and outscored opponents 85-33 in the three-game playoff blitz. Csonka's yardage was a Super Bowl record and he was named MVP.

1974 AFC PLAYOFF

OAKLAND 28, MIAMI 26 — Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum
December 21, 1974 — Oakland, CA

Oakland quarterback Ken Stabler, falling in the clutches of Vern Den Herder, unloaded a wobbly eight-yard pass that Clarence Davis wrestled from three defenders in the end zone, and the Raiders scored a stunning 28-26 victory over the defending champion Dolphins. Stabler, who had spent the last of his timeouts, appeared to have thrown an interception. But running back Davis clutched the football when bodies were untangled with 26 seconds remaining. It was the fourth TD pass for lefthander Stabler and his second "freak" score. Four minutes earlier, Cliff Branch fell while catching a pass at the Dolphin 27, but defender Henry Stuckey also slipped, and Branch got up and escaped for a 72-yard TD. The Dolphins, trailing by two points, went ahead with 2:08 remaining as rookie Benny Malone broke two tackles on a 23-yard touchdown run along the sideline.

1978 AFC WILD-CARD PLAYOFF

HOUSTON 17, MIAMI 9 — Orange Bowl
December 24, 1978 — Miami, FL

The Houston Oilers amassed a 455-209 margin in total yardage, and aided by five Dolphin turnovers, gained a 17-9 victory in a battle of AFC wild-card entries at the Orange Bowl. Toni Fritsch kicked a 35-yard field goal with 7:25 remaining to snap a 7-7 tie that existed since the first quarter. An interception by linebacker Greg Bingham led to a clinching 50-yard touchdown drive capped by Earl Campbell's one-yard dive with 1:55 to go. Campbell, the NFL rushing leader with 1,450 yards as a rookie, had been checked for only 16 yards on 13 carries in the first half. Dolphin quarterback Bob Griese, playing with very sore ribs, connected with tight end Andre Tillman for a 13-yard TD after Earnie Rhone had recovered a fumbled punt at the Houston 21. But Griese completed only 13 of 28 passes. Twice the Dolphins lost the ball inside the Oiler 10-yard line when the game was tied. Houston's Dan Pastorini wore a flak jacket to protect three broken ribs, and he passed for 261 of his 306-yard total in the first half.

1979 AFC PLAYOFF

PITTSBURGH 34, MIAMI 14 — Three Rivers Stadium
December 30, 1979 — Pittsburgh, PA

Launching a drive to their fourth Super Bowl title in six years, the Pittsburgh Steelers scored touchdowns on their first three possessions and coasted to a 34-14 victory at Three Rivers Stadium. Miami managed only 25 yards rushing against the Steel Curtain and was stopped twice in the second quarter after achieving a first down inside the Steeler 10-yard line. The Dolphins got as close as 20-7 with a seven-yard TD pass from Bob Griese to Duriel Harris in the third period, but Pittsburgh responded with a 69-yard TD drive. The Steelers marched 62, 62 and 56 yards for their first-quarter scores when quarterback Terry Bradshaw completed 8 of 10 passes, including touchdowns to John Stallworth and Lynn Swann, who was standing alone in the end zone. Don Strock directed a 13-play, 76-yard TD drive after relieving Griese in the fourth quarter.

1981 AFC PLAYOFF

SAN DIEGO 41, MIAMI 38 (OT) — Orange Bowl
January 2, 1982 — Miami, FL

A record-setting showcase of the passing game resulted in NFL playoff marks for most points (79), most total yards (1,036) and most drama as the San Diego Chargers outlasted the Dolphins 41-38 in overtime. "The Miracle That Died" was the Miami Herald headline after the Dolphins rallied behind reserve quarterback Don Strock to overcome a 24-point deficit. Strock completed 29 of 43 passes for 403 yards and four touchdowns, spurring the Dolphins to a 38-31 lead. A 12-yard sweep by Tony Nathan on the first play of the fourth quarter put the Dolphins on top. But Charger quarterback Dan Fouts, who passed for an NFL record 4,802 yards during the season, led an 82-yard drive capped by a 9-yard pass to James Brooks to tie the game with 58 seconds remaining. Five players had more than 100 yards in receptions, topped by Charger tight end Kellen Winslow with 13 catches for 166 yards. Fouts, who finished with 433 yards on 33 of 53 marksmanship, hooked up with Charlie Joiner for 39 yards to the Dolphin 10-yard line. Rolf Benirschke then kicked a 29-yard field goal to end the struggle after 13:52 of overtime. Benirschke had missed a 27-yard attempt eight minutes earlier, and Miami's Uwe von Schamann had two attempts blocked – a 43-yarder on the last play of regulation and a 35-yarder after 11:27 of overtime. It was the first game in NFL history in which two quarterbacks passed for more than 400 yards.

1982 AFC PLAYOFF (first round)

MIAMI 28, NEW ENGLAND 13 — Orange Bowl
January 8, 1983 — Miami, FL

For the first time in nine years, the Miami Dolphins won a playoff game, defeating the New England Patriots 28-13. Dolphin QB David Woodley had one of his finest games, completing 16 of 19 passes for 246 yards and two TDs. He was a perfect 8-8 in the second half. The Dolphins had not experienced a playoff win since January 13, 1974, when they downed Minnesota in Super Bowl VIII. The Dolphins took command in the second quarter, putting together back-to-back TD drives of 76 and 79 yards that turned a 3-0 deficit into a 14-3 halftime advantage. The four Miami TDs came on a pair of two-yard passes from David Woodley to tight end Bruce Hardy, a one-yard run by Andra Franklin and Woody Bennett's two-yard burst up the middle. Franklin finished with 112 yards on 26 carries, but lost the ball three times on fumbles. Two of those fumbles resulted in John Smith field goals of 23 and 42 yards for New England.

MIAMI 34, SAN DIEGO 13 — Orange Bowl
January 16, 1983 — Miami, FL

The Dolphins, on their way to a five-game victory roll, choked off the famed Charger offense and won 34-13. The Dolphin defense stopped the San Diego offense, holding it to a total of 247 yards – 203 yards below its league-leading average – while holding the Chargers scoreless in the second half. Dolphin defenders intercepted QB Dan Fouts five times, sacked him three times and held the Chargers to 15 completions for 191 yards – their lowest output since a January, 1982, playoff game in the ice at Cincinnati. The Dolphin offense kept Fouts and Company on the sideline by utilizing ball control that produced 80 plays to San Diego's 54 and an overwhelming time of possession advantage; the Dolphins had the ball for 40:46 to the Chargers' 19:14. Dolphin QB David Woodley guided his team to a 214-yard ground attack while connecting on 17-22 passes for 195 yards and two TDs. Woodley opened the scoring with a three-yard pass to Nat Moore in the first quarter and made it 14-0 by directing Miami 89 yards on 13 plays. Charger kickoff returner Hank Bauer fumbled a kickoff which was recovered by Uwe von Schamann at the Charger 23-yard line. Seven plays later, Woodley hit tight end Ronnie Lee on a six-yard look-in pass for the score. On the next kickoff, Dolphin rookie Rich Diana recovered a fumble by the Chargers' James Brooks, but this time Miami had to settle for a 29-yard von Schamann field goal. The Chargers scored two late TDs, one on a 28-yard pass from Fouts to Charlie Joiner and the other on Chuck Muncie's one-yard dive that ended the San Diego scoring. Von Schamann added a second field goal shortly before the end of the first half and Woodley scored on a seven-yard QB draw early in the fourth quarter.

1982 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

MIAMI 14, N.Y. JETS 0 Orange Bowl
January 23, 1983 Miami, FL

For the third time in as many games the Miami Dolphins defeated the New York Jets, this time on a rainy, mud-soaked Orange Bowl field. The Dolphins set an AFC Championship Game record by holding the Jets to 139 total yards. A.J. Duhe set an AFC playoff record with three interceptions, including one he returned for a 35-yard TD. The Dolphins set an NFL record by being the first team to have defeated the same team three times in a season – two times during the regular season and once in a playoff game. On nine occasions since the AFL-NFL merger, teams had met three times in a season – but no team had won all three games. Before a crowd of 67,396, the Dolphins' Woody Bennett rumbled seven yards up the middle to score the only points the Dolphins would need. That came in the third quarter after the teams had trudged through a scoreless first half on the soggy Prescription Athletic Turf.

SUPER BOWL XVII

WASHINGTON 27, MIAMI 17 Rose Bowl
January 30, 1983 Pasadena, CA

The Washington Redskins, behind the power running of John Riggins, came from behind to win Super Bowl XVII in the famed Rose Bowl, beating Miami 27-17. Before the second-largest crowd for a Super Bowl – 103,667 fans – the Redskins took the lead for the first time with a little more than 10 minutes left on the clock. The game was marked by a Super Bowl record performance by Fulton Walker, who returned four kickoffs 190 yards, including a 98-yard TD that gave Miami a 17-10 halftime lead. It was the first kickoff returned for a TD in Super Bowl history and the longest kickoff return in playoff history. Riggins ran up 166 yards on 38 carries, both Super Bowl records. On a short-yardage play – fourth-and-one from the Redskin 43 with 10:01 to play – Riggins broke a tackle and scored on a 43-yard run. Riggins accounted for 181 total yards, five more yards than the entire Miami offense could manage in the game. In the first quarter, Miami jumped to a quick lead with a 76-yard David Woodley to Jimmy Cefalo pass for a TD.

1983 AFC PLAYOFF

SEATTLE 27, MIAMI 20 Orange Bowl
December 31, 1983 Miami, FL

The Miami Dolphins saw their season end on a sour note as they lost a 27-20 decision to the Seattle Seahawks in the first round of the AFC playoffs. Before 71,032 fans in the Orange Bowl, Dolphin rookie quarterback Dan Marino returned from his December 4 knee injury. On their second possession, the Dolphins launched a 12-play, 80-yard drive ending with a 19-yard TD pass from Marino to tight end Dan Johnson (PAT missed). A 59-yard return by Zachary Dixon on the ensuing kickoff led to a six-yard scoring toss from Seattle's Dave Krieg to Cullen Bryant with the extra point, giving the Seahawks a one point lead. Miami immediately retaliated, using a 17-yard Marino to Mark Duper hook-up to pave the way for a 32-yard circus catch by Duper for the touchdown. Early in the third quarter, a David Overstreet fumble in Seattle territory set the Seahawks up for a 55-yard TD march featuring a 28-yard completion from Krieg to Paul Johns, and culminating in a one-yard run by Curt Warner. Norm Johnson's 27-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter gave Seattle a 17-13 lead. The Dolphins managed to regain the lead at 20-17 following a Gerald Small interception (18-yard return) and Woody Bennett's two-yard run with only 3:43 remaining. However, the lead was shortlived as the Seahawks came right back to score on Warner's short run following a pair of Krieg to Steve Largent completions for a total of 56 yards. Miami's Fulton Walker then fumbled the Seattle kickoff, thus leading to a 37-yard Johnson field goal. Another Walker kickoff fumble iced the game for the Seahawks, who were participating in the playoffs for the first time in their eight-year history.

1984 AFC PLAYOFF

MIAMI 31, SEATTLE 10 — Orange Bowl
December 29, 1984 — Miami, FL

The Miami Dolphins, led by quarterback Dan Marino's three touchdown passes and a defense that shut out the opposition in three of four quarters, defeated the Seattle Seahawks 31-10 before 73,469 fans in the Orange Bowl. The Dolphins moved in front on their second possession and stayed there. Running back Tony Nathan keyed the 68-yard drive by gaining 38 yards on four carries, including the touchdown on a 14-yard run. A 26-yard Marino to Mark Clayton completion was the long play of the scoring march. A 32-yard interception return by Seattle's John Harris and a 25-yard pass from Dave Krieg to Steve Largent paved the way for Norm Johnson's 27-yard field goal that cut Miami's lead to 7-3. The Dolphins, however, came right back to score on their next series as a 20-yard reception by Woody Bennett preceded Marino's 34-yard scoring hook-up with Jimmy Cefalo. The Seahawks made it 14-10 at halftime when Largent scored on a 56-yard catch-and-run play. After Miami's defense had stopped Seattle on the Dolphin 24-yard line to open the second half, the Dolphins embarked on a 13-play, 76-yard TD drive that included a Bruce Hardy touchdown catch from three yards out. After the Seahawks' Jeff West managed just a seven-yard punt, Clayton made an acrobatic catch on a tipped ball in the end zone for a 33-yard TD. Miami closed out the scoring on Uwe von Schamann's 37-yard field goal in a drive that featured a 32-yard Marino to Hardy pass.

1984 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

MIAMI 45, PITTSBURGH 28 — Orange Bowl
January 6, 1985 — Miami, FL

The Miami Dolphins, led by Dan Marino's 421 yards passing (four touchdowns) and Mark Duper's 148 yards receiving, advanced to Super Bowl XIX by defeating the Pittsburgh Steelers 45-28 in the AFC Championship Game before 76,029 fans in the Orange Bowl. The Dolphins scored on their first offensive series as they moved 67 yards in four plays following a William Judson interception, with the TD coming on a 40-yard pass from Marino to Mark Clayton. Pittsburgh's first score came on Rich Erenberg's seven-yard run that had been set up by Walter Abercrombie's 38 yards gained in the 66-yard march. A 26-yard Uwe von Schamann field goal preceded a 65-yard toss from the Steelers' Mark Malone to John Stallworth that gave Pittsburgh a 14-10 lead. The Dolphins then scored two TDs in the final 2:52 of the first half, the first score coming on a 41-yard reception by Duper. After Lyle Blackwood's interception, Marino hit TE Joe Rose for a 28-yard gain before Tony Nathan gave the Dolphins a 24-14 lead on a two-yard run. Miami then scored on its first three second-half possessions, leading off with Marino's 36-yard scoring strike to Duper. The Steelers closed the gap to 31-21 on Malone's 19-yarder to Stallworth (33-yarder to Louis Lipps in drive). Completions to Duper (41 yards), Nathan (20 yards) and Nat Moore (28 yards) then led to a one-yard TD dive by Woody Bennett. Moore then caught a six-yard touchdown pass before Wayne Capers closed out the scoring with a 29-yard TD reception.

SUPER BOWL XIX

SAN FRANCISCO 38, MIAMI 16 — Stanford Stadium
January 20, 1985 — Palo Alto, CA

The Miami Dolphins, unable to score in the game's final two quarters, dropped a 38-16 decision to the San Francisco 49ers in Super Bowl XIX before 84,059 fans in Stanford Stadium. The Dolphins were outgained in the contest by a 537-314 margin with the 49ers maintaining possession for 37:11. Miami opened the scoring on its first possession as Uwe von Schamann converted a 37-yard field goal (key play – Dan Marino's 25-yard completion to Tony Nathan). San Francisco jumped ahead 7-3 when QB Joe Montana led the Niners on an eight-play, 78-yard drive that culminated in a 33-yard TD toss to Carl Monroe. The Dolphins scored their only touchdown of the game on their next series as two Marino completions to Mark Clayton (18, 13 yards) and a 21-yarder to Dan Johnson paved the way for Johnson's two-yard scoring catch. Touchdown runs of eight and two yards by Roger Craig and Montana's six-yard scamper gave San Francisco a 28-10 lead. Von Schamann then connected on field goals of 31 and 30 yards in the final 12 seconds of the first half to close the Dolphin deficit to 28-16. The 49ers upped their lead on their initial second-half possession on Ray Wersching's 27-yard field goal, before closing out the scoring on Craig's 16-yard scoring reception (key play – 40-yard Montana to Wendell Tyler pass play).

1985 AFC PLAYOFF

MIAMI 24, CLEVELAND 21 — Orange Bowl
January 4, 1986 — Miami, FL

Most people had not given them much of a chance to win, but the 8-8 Cleveland Browns nearly upset the 12-4 Dolphins in the Orange Bowl. It would take two Ron Davenport touchdowns in the final 17 minutes to send Miami to a 24-21 victory and the AFC Championship Game against New England the following week. Fuad Reveiz put the Dolphins on the board early with a 51-yard field goal on Miami's first drive of the game. But Cleveland came back to score 21 unanswered points, and held a 21-3 advantage midway through the third quarter. Cleveland rookie quarterback Bernie Kosar, who had played two college seasons in the Orange Bowl for the University of Miami, hit Ozzie Newsome with a 16-yard touchdown pass for the Browns' first points of the day. Earnest Byner (16-161) ran in from 21 yards out just before the half, and then he broke a 66-yard touchdown jaunt 3:38 into the second half. Just like that, the improbable began to look possible. Dan Marino connected with Nat Moore for a six-yard touchdown pass just over six minutes later and Miami had closed the margin to 21-10. Then it was time for Davenport (6-48) to show his stuff. First, he hit the hole for a 31-yard touchdown run late in the third period and then he closed the scoring and put Miami up for good, going over from one yard out with just 1:57 remaining in the game.

1985 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

NEW ENGLAND 31, MIAMI 14 — Orange Bowl
January 12, 1986 — Miami, FL

The New England Patriots garnered a bid to their first Super Bowl by snapping an 18-game losing streak to the Dolphins in Miami with a 31-14 triumph at the Orange Bowl. The Patriots' only previous victory in Miami came in the first meeting between the two teams in 1966. New England backs Craig James (22-105) and Robert Weathers (16-87) combined for 192 yards rushing and quarterback Tony Eason was on target with a 10-12 performance for 71 yards as the Pats set up a Super Bowl date with the Chicago Bears. After New England got on the board first with a Tony Franklin 23-yard field goal, the Dolphins stormed back for their only lead of the afternoon when Dan Marino passed 10 yards to Dan Johnson early in the second quarter. Eason brought New England right back with three touchdown tosses, and the Pats led 24-7 after three quarters. Miami's last score of the day came early in the fourth quarter when Tony Nathan grabbed a 10-yard TD pass from Marino. New England fullback Mosi Tatupu ended the game's scoring with a one-yard TD jaunt midway through the fourth quarter.

DOLPHINS ON THE AIR

WIOD

In 1988, the Miami Dolphins' radio network will consist of over 35 radio stations (over 80 markets) with Miami's WIOD (AM-610) again serving as the flagship station. WIOD has been the originator of Dolphin broadcasts since the team's 1966 inception. Known throughout South Florida as "Someplace Special for Sports," WIOD's Dolphin coverage is among the most comprehensive in the NFL.

WIOD begins its game-day coverage two hours before kickoff with "The Dolphin Express," including player features, key matchups in the upcoming game, plus other pertinent information from around the NFL. Also included in the pre-game package is "The Don Shula Show," featuring a preview of the day's contest by the Dolphin head coach.

Following the game, "The Locker Room Show" keeps listeners up-to-date on all other games around the league and also includes interviews from both the Dolphin and opposing locker rooms with key players from that day's game.

Handling the play-by-play will be "The Voice of the Dolphins," Rick Weaver, who enters his 18th season with the Dolphins. Weaver, who serves as Vice President of Sports at WIOD, is in his 25th year of calling NFL action. Weaver, who is famous for starting the "white handkerchief" in 1971, previously broadcast games for Dallas, Chicago and San Francisco. Weaver is a 10-time recipient of the Florida Sportscaster of the Year award.

Weaver is most proud of his involvement with the "Rick Weaver Invitational Golf Tournament," held for the benefit of Special Olympics in Dade County. A native of Toledo, Ohio, the Ohio State graduate resides in North Miami with his wife, Bobbie.

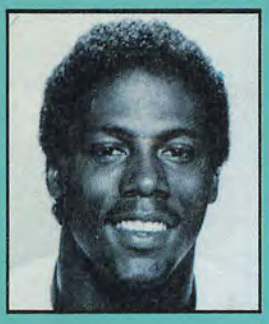
Joining Rick in the booth will be color commentator Hank Goldberg. Goldberg, a Duke University graduate, is one of South Florida's most controversial sports figures. In addition to his WIOD duties, Hank works for an advertising agency and WTVJ-TV (Channel 4) in Miami.

WQBA

For the seventh straight year, the Dolphins' South Florida Latin fans will be able to follow the team's fortunes on WQBA. The 1988 season marks the fourth year of the shift over to WQBA's AM station (1140).

Rene Giraldo will handle the play-by-play duties for his third season after three years as a color analyst.

MARK CLAYTON



5-9 184

PRO: Outstanding receiver whose trademark is the leaping, over-the-shoulder catch . . . Has 35-inch vertical jump . . . Together with fellow Miami receiver Mark Duper forms duo nationally known as the "Marks Brothers" . . . Has caught at least one pass in 67 of 78 (85.9%) career games, including 62 of 63 since rookie year . . . Dolphins have 23-10 record when he has caught a TD pass . . . Over past four seasons (1984-87), ranks second in NFL in receiving yards with 4,311 (behind Steve Largent's 4,433) and third in receiving TDs with 39 (behind 40 of Mike Quick and Jerry Rice) . . . Stands as fifth-leading receiver in team history with 255 receptions for 4,425 yards (17.4 average) and 40 TDs . . . Should move into at least fourth place on receiving chart in '88, passing Duriel Harris (269) . . . Enters year with streak of 22 consecutive games with at least one reception, longest active string on club . . . Will be chasing Nat Moore's team record of 36 straight games with a catch in '88 . . . Ranks third (behind Moore and Larry Csonka) in club annals on career TD list with 41 . . . Tied for second with Duper in career receiving TDs (40), behind only 74 of Moore . . . Fourth on all-time receiving yards list with 4,425; expecting to pass Harris (4,534) this year . . . Has 12 career 100-yard receiving games, tying him with Moore for second on all-time list (behind Duper's 20) . . . Holds top single-season reception total in team history, 73 in 1984; also has #4 total of 70 in 1985 . . . Also has top single-season receiving yards mark of 1,389 in '84, plus fourth-highest total of 1,150 in 1986 . . . Continues hold on club record for receiving TDs in a season with 18 in 1984 . . . Those 18 TDs also had stood as an NFL record until Rice of the 49ers caught 22 scoring passes in 1987 . ∴. Stands seventh on team's all-time total yards from scrimmage list with 4,520 during career; expected to pass at least Harris (4,567) in '88 . . . Should crack club's top five in career combined yards, passing #5 Harris (6,062); enters year with 5,045 . . . Started all 12 non-strike games in 1987 . . . Finished second on team in receptions (behind Troy Stradford) with 46 for 776 yards (16.9 average) and seven TDs . . . Was first in receiving yards . . . Voted team's outstanding receiver by South Florida media . . . In AFC, was 8th in receiving yards, 17th in receptions and 9th in scoring (non-kickers) with 42 points . . . Made at least two catches in every game he played in last year . . . Cleaned up versus state of Pennsylvania in 1987 . . . Had only 100-yard game of '87 at Philadelphia (12/13) with seven receptions for 104 yards and two TDs . . . Reception and yardage totals against Eagles both were personal season-highs for '87 . . . Made TD catches of 41 and 33 yards versus Pittsburgh (11/1), the second of which gave Miami 28-24 lead en route to 35-24 win after Dolphins had trailed 21-7 in game . . . Had six receptions in first Buffalo contest (for 81 yards, 1 TD) and second meeting with Jets (for 96 yards) . . . Caught eventual winning touchdown pass (of 30 yards) at Cincinnati, a reception which also kept alive Dan Marino's streak of consecutive games with at least one TD toss at 28 . . . Finished 1986 with 60 receptions for 1,150 yards and 10 TDs . . . Went over 1,000 receiving yards in a season for second time in career (had 1,389 in 1984) . . . Was third on team in receptions and second in receiving yards in '86 . . . Ranked fifth in conference in reception yardage (seventh in NFL) . . . Named as an alternate to 1986 Pro Bowl, played when Duper was unable to participate . . . Also played in Pro Bowl in '84 and '85 .

Acquired: D8, 1983
NFL: Sixth Season
Dolphins: Sixth Season

#83

PRO: Outstanding receiver whose trademark is the leaping, over-the-shoulder catch . . . Has 35-inch vertical jump . . . Together with fellow Miami receiver Mark Duper forms duo nationally known as the "Marks Brothers" . . . Has caught at least one pass in 67 of 78 (85.9%) career games, including 62 of 63 since rookie year . . . Dolphins have 23-10 record when he has caught a TD pass . . . Over past four seasons (1984-87), ranks second in NFL in receiving yards with 4,311 (behind Steve Largent's 4,433) and third in receiving TDs with 39 (behind 40 of Mike Quick and Jerry Rice) . . . Stands as fifth-leading receiver in team history with 255 receptions for 4,425 yards (17.4 average) and 40 TDs . . . Should move into at least fourth place on receiving chart in '88, passing Duriel Harris (269) . . . Enters year with streak of 22 consecutive games with at least one reception, longest active string on club . . . Will be chasing Nat Moore's team record of 36 straight games with a catch in '88 . . . Ranks third (behind Moore and Larry Csonka) in club annals on career TD list with 41 . . . Tied for second with Duper in career receiving TDs (40), behind only 74 of Moore . . . Fourth on all-time receiving yards list with 4,425; expecting to pass Harris (4,534) this year . . . Has 12 career 100-yard receiving games, tying him with Moore for second on all-time list (behind Duper's 20) . . . Holds top single-season reception total in team history, 73 in 1984; also has #4 total of 70 in 1985 . . . Also has top single-season receiving yards mark of 1,389 in '84, plus fourth-highest total of 1,150 in 1986 . . . Continues hold on club record for receiving TDs in a season with 18 in 1984 . . . Those 18 TDs also had stood as an NFL record until Rice of the 49ers caught 22 scoring passes in 1987 . . . Stands seventh on team's all-time total yards from scrimmage list with 4,520 during career; expected to pass at least Harris (4,567) in '88 . . . Should crack club's top five in career combined yards, passing #5 Harris (6,062); enters year with 5,045 . . . Started all 12 non-strike games in 1987 . . . Finished second on team in receptions (behind Troy Stradford) with 46 for 776 yards (16.9 average) and seven TDs . . . Was first in receiving yards . . . Voted team's outstanding receiver by South Florida media . . . In AFC, was 8th in receiving yards, 17th in receptions and 9th in scoring (non-kickers) with 42 points . . . Made at least two catches in every game he played in last year . . . Cleaned up versus state of Pennsylvania in 1987 . . . Had only 100-yard game of '87 at Philadelphia (12/13) with seven receptions for 104 yards and two TDs . . . Reception and yardage totals against Eagles both were personal season-highs for '87 . . . Made TD catches of 41 and 33 yards versus Pittsburgh (11/1), the second of which gave Miami 28-24 lead en route to 35-24 win after Dolphins had trailed 21-7 in game . . . Had six receptions in first Buffalo contest (for 81 yards, 1 TD) and second meeting with Jets (for 96 yards) . . . Caught eventual winning touchdown pass (of 30 yards) at Cincinnati, a reception which also kept alive Dan Marino's streak of consecutive games with at least one TD toss at 28 . . . Finished 1986 with 60 receptions for 1,150 yards and 10 TDs . . . Went over 1,000 receiving yards in a season for second time in career (had 1,389 in 1984) . . . Was third on team in receptions and second in receiving yards in '86 . . . Ranked fifth in conference in reception yardage (seventh in NFL) . . . Named as an alternate to 1986 Pro Bowl, played when Duper was unable to participate . . . Also played in Pro Bowl in '84 and '85 .

ASSISTANT COACHES

DAVID SHULA

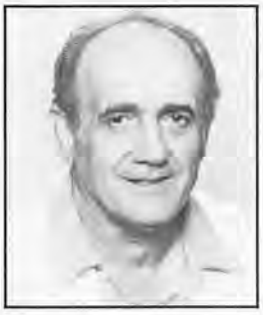
Assistant Head Coach, Quarterbacks/Passing Game
College: Dartmouth
NFL: Seventh Season
Dolphins: Seventh Season
Born: May 28, 1959

David Shula begins his seventh season with the Dolphins and serves Miami as its assistant head coach, in addition to being in charge of the passing game and quarterbacks. In a relatively short time, Shula has become one of the brightest and most respected young coaches in professional football. Three years ago he added the responsibility of assistant head coach and has become more involved in the overall football operation. This past February he relinquished his duties concerning the team's receiving corps to new receivers coach Larry Seiple.

After three years as the Dolphins' receivers coach, Shula was given the added duties of working with Miami quarterbacks in 1985. He proved he takes after his famous father in two important characteristics – hard work and dedication.

Last year the Dolphins again enjoyed success through the air as Miami was first in the league in passing as a team for the second straight season, and Dan Marino was second in the AFC in the individual rankings. In addition, rookie Troy Stradford (13th) and Mark Clayton (17th) were among leaders in AFC receiving.

CARL TASEFF



Offensive Backs
College: John Carroll
NFL: 22nd Season
Dolphins: 19th Season
Born: September 28, 1928

When Don Shula arrived in Miami in 1970, so too did Carl Taseff. Taseff and Shula's relationship dates back to their college days when they played in the same backfield together for coach Herb Eisele's John Carroll squad in Cleveland. They were also roommates in the NFL while both played for Cleveland (1951-52) and Baltimore (1953-56).

Taseff has coached the Dolphin offensive backs since coming to South Florida, and he's done it with great success. In fact, in the eight-year span from 1970-77, Taseff's backs ranked fifth or higher in NFL rushing on seven occasions. More importantly, Taseff has been able to change with the times. During the 1970s, the Dolphins employed a grind-it-out style that featured powerful fullback Larry Csonka. Since Dan Marino's emergence as Miami's air-oriented quarterback, Taseff's charges have become more a part of the passing game (ie. Lorenzo Hampton was second on the team in receptions in '86 and Troy Stradford led the team in '87). Stradford, a rookie last year, was 10th in the conference in rushing and 13th in the AFC in receiving. He earned numerous rookie-of-the-year awards.

Taseff came to Miami after spending two years working for the CEPO scouting combine (1968-69). Prior to that, he had coaching stints with the AFL's Boston Patriots (1964) and the NFL's Detroit Lions (1965-66).

TOM OLIVADOTTI

Defense
College: Upsala
NFL: Fourth Season
Dolphins: Second Season
Born: September 22, 1945

Tom Olivadotti begins his second season as the man responsible for the Dolphins' overall defense. Olivadotti came to the Dolphins after spending two seasons (1985-86) with the Cleveland Browns as an assistant.

In his first year with Miami, the number of big plays allowed by the Dolphins decreased dramatically. Miami was first in the AFC (and third in the NFL) in fewest yards allowed per completion (11.63). In 1986, the Dolphins had given up 13.19 yards per completion, 12th in the AFC and 22nd in the NFL.

MEL PHILLIPS

Defensive Backs
College: North Carolina A&T
NFL: Ninth Season
Dolphins: Fourth Season
Born: January 6, 1942

Mel Phillips moves into his fourth season as defensive backs coach for the Dolphins. Three years ago, in only his first season with Miami, Phillips saw his DBs tie for third place in the AFC in interceptions. A rash of injuries hurt the Miami secondary in '86 but Phillips has high hopes for the '88 campaign.

Before coming to Miami, the 46-year-old Phillips previously held the same position for five seasons with the Detroit Lions (1980-84).

Known for his outstanding rapport with his players, Phillips coached in Detroit under then-head coach (and former Dolphin assistant) Monte Clark.

MIKE WESTHOFF

Special Teams, Tight Ends
College: Wichita State
NFL: Sixth Season
Dolphins: Third Season
Born: January 10, 1948

Mike Westhoff begins his third year as a member of the Dolphins' coaching staff concentrating on special teams and tight ends.

Westhoff came to Miami after spending a year in the United States Football League with the Arizona Outlaws, where he was the offensive line coach for Frank Kush.

Before his one-year stint in the USFL, Westhoff spent three seasons under Kush with the Baltimore/Indianapolis Colts (1982-84).

CHUCK STUDLEY

Linebackers
College: Illinois
NFL: 20th Season
Dolphins: Fifth Season
Born: January 17, 1929

Chuck Studley, a veteran of two decades of NFL coaching, moves into his second season as Miami's linebacker coach. For the previous three years (1984-86) Studley was in charge of the Dolphins' overall defense.

The Dolphin defense has had a proud tradition of linebackers with men named Buoniconti, Matheson and Duhe. Studley hopes to continue that trend with veterans like Hugh Green, Bob Brudzinski, Mark Brown and Jackie Shipp and young standouts like John Offerdahl, Rick Graf and Eric Kumerow. In 1986, Offerdahl became the first Dolphin LB named as a starter in the Pro Bowl. He was named to the Pro Bowl again in 1987.

Studley, who joined the Dolphins on Dec. 27, 1983, had begun the '83 season as the defensive coordinator for the Houston Oilers. Following the team's 0-6 start, head coach Ed Biles resigned on Oct. 10, with Studley being tabbed as interim head coach.

JOHN SANDUSKY

Offense, Offensive Line
College: Villanova
NFL: 30th Season
Dolphins: 13th Season
Born: December 28, 1925

Like many of the men who played for him, John Sandusky is regarded as "one of the best in the business." Sandusky – and his offensive line – just keeps getting better. A veteran of three decades of NFL coaching (he begins his 30th campaign in '88), Sandusky starts his 13th year with the Dolphins looking for continued success.

In 1987, the Dolphin offensive line allowed the fewest QB sacks (13) in the NFL for the sixth straight season.

Under Sandusky's guidance the Dolphin offensive line has rewritten the NFL record book. In 1987 Miami increased its league-record string of consecutive seasons leading the NFL in fewest QB sacks to six (1982-87). The Dolphins also hold the record for most seasons leading the league in fewest sacks – seven. Miami also led the NFL in passing in 1987.

LARRY SEIPLE

Receivers
College: Kentucky
NFL: Eighth Season
Dolphins: First Season
Born: February 14, 1945

The newcomer to the Miami Dolphins' coaching staff is an old familiar face – former Dolphin Larry Seiple. Seiple, who spent 11 seasons with Miami as a player, returns "home" in a new role as receivers coach.

Seiple joined the Dolphin staff in late February after spending a year as a sales representative for a manufacturing company in the automotive industry in Birmingham, Mich.

The Allentown, Pa., native brings seven years experience as an NFL receivers coach to Miami. He previously served as receivers coach with the Detroit Lions (1980-84), working under former Dolphins' assistant Monte Clark. He then moved on to Tampa Bay, where he was receivers coach from 1985-86.

DAN SEKANOVICH

Defensive Line
College: Tennessee
NFL: 12th Season
Dolphins: Third Season
Born: July 27, 1933

Dan Sekanovich, a veteran of more than a decade of NFL coaching, begins his third season as a member of the Miami Dolphins staff. The 55-year-old Sekanovich is in charge of the Dolphin defensive line. He spent three seasons (1983-85) as the assistant head coach/defensive line mentor of the Atlanta Falcons before coming to Miami. While with Atlanta he helped develop two top young linemen in Rick Bryan and Mike Gann. With the Dolphins, he will be working with young prospects like T.J. Turner, Brian Sochia, John Bosa and Eric Kumerow.

Prior to his Atlanta post, Sekanovich developed one of the NFL's most feared defensive units, "The New York Sack Exchange," while defensive line coach for the New York Jets from 1977-82. In 1981, the Sack Exchange led the NFL in sacks with the defensive line getting 59 of 66.

JUNIOR WADE

Strength and Conditioning
College: South Carolina State
NFL: 14th Season
Dolphins: 14th Season
Born: February 2, 1947

One of the key figures in the Dolphin program is veteran strength and conditioning coach Junior Wade.

In his sixth season as the Dolphins' strength and conditioning coach, Wade also administers the team's successful off-season conditioning program and assists with the Miami special teams. Previously, Wade had served eight years as the club's assistant trainer. The promotion to assistant coaching status was a well-deserved reward for the affable Wade. As a trainer, he long had held the respect of the Dolphin players for his knowledge and his willingness to boost player morale by putting himself through the same rigorous rehabilitation as that prescribed for injured Dolphins.

DOLPHIN FACT

The Dolphins hold the NFL record for most consecutive home games won. Miami won 27 straight regular-season games (31 overall) at the Orange Bowl from 1971-74.

DOLPHINS INDIVIDUAL RECORDS

The following individual records relate solely to service with the Miami Dolphins. They include National Football League regular-season statistics only – with the exception of those single-game records marked by "*" or "."
